Tribute Wall

“ Eileen was like a member of our family. She is one of the few people who has known me my entire life, along with my parents and siblings. My mom and Eileen met as lockermates at Merchantville High School in 1952 and were lifelong friends ever since. We have countless memories of spending time with Eileen over the years, but a special one is when she came to visit our family when we lived in England.

Eileen, thank you for being such a wonderful friend to my mom as well as to the rest of our family. We love you and will miss you so much.
