“ Jack, many years ago you and Jean and I became a blended family, and I am endlessly grateful for all of the family gatherings that we shared. I will miss our conversations and your wonderful storytelling. But I will be reminded of you every time I look at and listen to your sons because they are you. Rest in Peace with your beloved Jean. Cheers to you, Jack!

“Pop pop, How blessed I am to have had a father-in-law who I got to spend forty years with. Forty years of wisdom (“Pam, now that you’re married there’s no more I, only we.”), stories of growing up in Beverly, tours through South Jersey (“Come on I can find you a house down here”), and much laughter... I could not have asked for a more loving Pop pop for my daughters. I especially have enjoyed getting to go to lunches with you all over South Jersey (never knew where we’d end up, but we’d have eaten well and had funny conversation). And of course I’ll miss you asking, “Pam, want to take anything from the basement?” Having only had my dad till I was twenty four, you have been the dad in my life and for that I will be eternally grateful. You have been a role model for the entire Mitchell clan. A role model of hard work, persistence, strength, living life to the fullest, loyalty (to family, to job, and to Phili teams to the end!), and humor. I love you very much and I wish you peace and happiness in heaven with Grandmom. Rest In Peace.

“ Poppop,

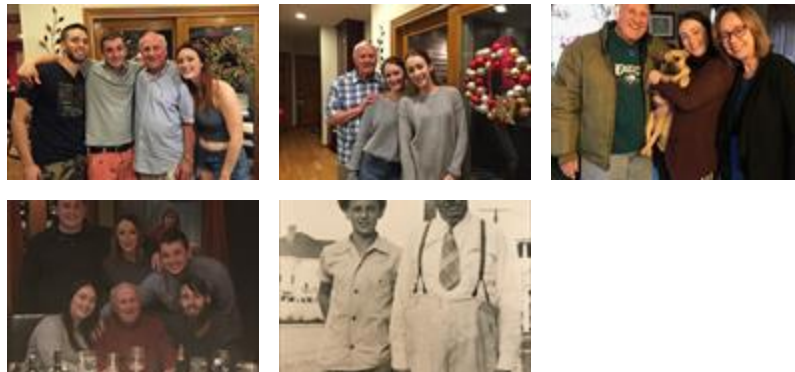

In this sorrowful time we have peace in knowing you are now with Grandmom again. We will all miss your sense of humor, funny stories, and love for your family and friends. We will carry on with the memories we have made and the work ethic you have instilled in all of us. We will never forget the countless family gatherings on Tinsman Ave from Easter egg hunts to extravagant Christmases. Thank you for being the best grandfather anyone can ask for. Go Eagles!!!
