“ Im really going to miss the Christmas gatherings and Tio playing his guitar as we all sing along. I will remember his smile and his kindness to everyone. Although unfair I know that God has taken another angel home. You live in Titi, your daughters, son, and grandkids. I love you. Rest in Peace

“ My name is Morris and I had the honor of meeting Mr. Rivera last year. I first met him after having been invited to a family event. Although I did not have the pleasure of knowing him for long, he struck me as a warm person. A good person with a kind heart. In our conversations, I was able to see that Mr. Rivera was an extremely bright individual with a wonderful sense of humor. When I visited him at the hospital, he would greet me with a big, warm smile. That is what I will remember the most about Mr. Rivera. I will miss not having had the chance to know him more personally, but I look forward to learn more about him from his family. In closing, I lend my most sincerest condolences to the Rivera family. May God bless you all, and grant you strength and serenity during this most challenging time.
