

William E. Wolf

March 25, 1926 - April 13, 2015

William E. Wolf, age 89, of Maple Shade passed away peacefully on Monday, April 13, 2015. He was born to the late Charles and Elsie Wolf in Philadelphia, PA. One of six brothers, William proudly served in the US Army during the Koran War. Having spent his pre service years working for the family trucking company, he returned from the war and worked with McLean trucking company for over 30 years until retirement.

William was a loving and supportive grandfather to his three grandchildren. In their childhood years playing cowboys and Indians, pushing his granddaughter on the swing to playing catch or watching them play sports from the bleachers.

Following his wife's death in 2012, he looked forward to his Wednesday luncheons with his long time best friend, Bob Duffin and spending vacation time with his brother Al and wife Dot.

William is predeceased by his wife Josephine, whom he cared for during her 10 year courageous fight with Alzheimer's, and his stepson Robert Wojcrehowski.

He is survived by his son, Bill Wolf and his wife Jean Marie; grandchildren William, Andrew, Katherine and brother Al Wolf.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend his visitation on Thursday, April 16, 2015 from 10:30am-11:30am at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, located at 236 E. Main St, Maple Shade, NJ 08052. A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 11:30am. William will be laid to rest beside his beloved wife Josephine on Friday, April 17, 2015 at 9:30am at Washington Crossing National Cemetery in Newtown, PA. “ I remember Mr. Wolf very well. He was a really nice guy offering supportive and positive words of encouragement to all of us kids-going over to Wolfies house was always a good memory - parents were really nice to me.

Tom Lynch - April 14, 2015 at 07:29 PM

Tom - thanks. We had lots of laughs for sure. One particular favorite memory is throwing darts with my Dad in the basement and drinking his "Pabst" beer!
